THE MINT DIRECTOR'S PRONOUNCEMENTS: President's Message

Dear Members,

Although it is only April, October is not far around the corner. I would like to share a few thoughts with you about our 1987 Coin Show and Exposition. The dates are little later than our usual September time, October 1 through 4. This was done to conform with the Cathedral Hill's schedule and also to avoid conflicts with other major coin shows.

Last year, NCNA attempted a major expansion of its Bourse from 78 to 147 tables by using both the Mezzanine Lobby and the El Dorado Room within the Hotel. The El Dorado Room was a loser because people were not accustomed to going into the Room, being somewhat remote. This year there will be no Bourse tables in that Room. There will be 106 tables, 78 being the long used and well-known Grand Ballroom and 28 on the Mezzanine Lobby. We will make every effort to accommodate dealers who prefer one location over another, and needless to say, so state and inform us in advance on their Bourse Applications. Again, preference will be given to those who state a choice and obviously to the earliest Applications received. The earlier received the better the chance that a coin dealer will get the preference he or she wants.

I would like to take this opportunity to introduce to NCNAers two new members of the executive officers, Ron Miller and Robert Mish. Ron Miller is no stranger to any northern California coin hobbyist. He is a founder of the Fremont Coin Club and has served it in various offices plus served as Bourse Coordinator for the San Jose Coin Club's annual January Coin Show. He regularly attends over forty-one coin shows each year through the United States in addition to operating an active business enterprise known as the Fremont Coin Gallery. Robert Mish, owner of Mish International Monetary Fund in Menlo Park, has been a member of NCNA for over ten years. As our newly elected Secretary, he becomes the newest addition to the executive officers.

I also wish to thank Brian Kestner, our retiring Secretary, for his years of service to NCNA.

One of our positive responses from the 1986 Coin Show and Exposition was the quality of service received from our security, Co-Operative Security. The same company will be contracted for our 1987 Coin Show and Exposition. Yes, we will definitely have the dogs on patrol.

Another positive response was our Anniversary Banquet. This was intended to be a one-time affair, celebrating our Silver Jubilee 25th Anniversary. But since it was so successful, we decided to hold an Annual Dinner on the Saturday night of our 1987 Coin Show and Exposition. The Dinner will not conflict with the Bourse nor the Sixth NCNA Auction. For Dinner details, contact: "Constance Perham, NCNA First Vice-President, PO Box One, New Almaden, California, 95042."

Very Truly Yours,

Denis N. Hooker
President

THE MINTMASTER'S QUILL: An Editor's Prerogative

My Friends,

As this Issue is the Sixth Anniversary of NCNA Heads and Tales, it makes for a good occasion to critically present, in open candor, some major concerns facing equally both the Northern California Numismatic Association (NCNA) and this periodical.

When NCNA Heads and Tales began, several idealistic objectives were pronounced; all long ago were forged anew on the anvil of reality. NCNA Heads and Tales regretfully has been unable to reverse nor correct three concerns.

First is the stagnation of membership. In six years, as based upon mailing figures to both Individual and Club Members, NCNA total membership has remain basically the same, and for a nationally known regional organization, it has been a poor average of 125 Individual Members and 25 Coin Club Members or so. The irony is that there are several local coin clubs within northern California with equal or even larger membership.

Second is the large turnover in membership. In the past six years, Individuals have jointed, over hundred or more; but equally, Individuals have failed to renew or continue their memberships. The stagnation in total membership confirms this statistic.

Third is the declining attendance by Coin Club Delegates at the quarterly Board of Directors Meetings. In fact, there is a serious danger that a future Board Meeting may lack a quorum. Your Editor's first Board Meeting had twenty or more in attendance representing several coin clubs. The last Board Meeting in February had only eight present, five being the executive officers.

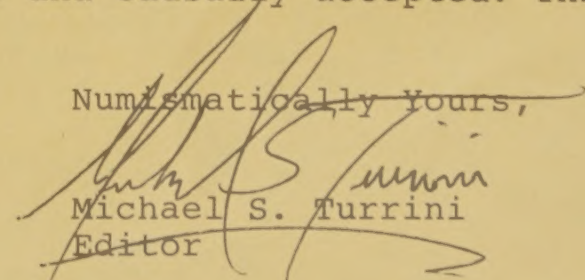

The Northern California Numismatic Association, which has the strong positive advantages of a sound treasury and first-class coin show and exposition, is crippled and retarded by repeatedly such poor membership base and participation.

The reasons for these conditions are extensive and hotly debated. One candid fact, openly admitted to, is that NCNA Heads and Tales and Your Editor have been unable to reverse these conditions nor to regenerate interest. Effort has been made, but to no success.

What can be done? What should be tired? What needs to be addressed? These are questions. This organization faces some major problems and the distinct possibility of becoming just a small group of die-hards operating with no benefit to anyone nor the coin hobby a national four day coin show and exposition.

The remaining question is: Does our hobby in northern California deserve such or is it just inevitable and causally accepted? This can be answer only by the reader.

Numismatically Yours,

Michael S. Turrini
Editor

FUERTAS was also a major award winner at the January San Jose Coin Club Coin Show and Forum. The LVCC meets in the Meeting Room of the Livermore Public Library on the Second Tuesday at 7:30pm.

Bakersfield Coin Club Writes that this year is its 30th Anniversary, 1957-1987. The BCC has recently relocated its meetings to the YMCA, 17th and M Streets, Bakersfield, from 7:00pm to 9:00pm, on the Second Monday of each month.

Reno Coin Club Elected its 1987 officers: DAVE ANDREWS, President; CHET EGAN, Vice-President; JUNE BLACK, Secretary, and ED HOFFMAN, Treasurer. The February 3rd and March 3rd meeting programs was a video presentation of Eva Adams' Talk at the 1986 RCC Reno Coin Show. ROGER GARDNER was responsible for this program. Renowned paper money collector, DOUGLAS MCDONALD also at the March meeting talked on 'Fractional Currency'.

Sacramento Valley Coin Club Reports that its recently established Numismatic Study Group (NSG) has held its Fifth Meeting. Each meeting, an informal gathering, is dedicated to some theme or particular coinage with all those attending sharing their coins and knowledge in a group effort to increase each's "numismatic awareness". SVCC Newsletter Editor John Gomer expresses the SVCC new NSG program as "an exhilarating brotherhood of learning". The 1987 SVCC officers are" CHARLES 'BEN' GAY, President; JOHN GOMER, Vice-President; WILLIAM FREEMAN, Secretary, JOHN GOMER, Corresponding Secretary, and ARTHUR SHATTUCK, Treasurer. President BEN GAY summarized in the February 1987 issue of the SVCC Newsletter that 1986 was an outstanding year for the Coin Club:

new meeting location, increased meeting prizes and drawings, excellent programs, two successful coin shows, one with record attendance, library listing published, advent of the SVCC Newsletter, and the beginnings of the NSG. The February 25th meeting had new SVCC member MADERA DE LA SECOYA present an informative talk on Jewish Coinage; its was reported that "his fine presentation elicited spirited discussion and participation by the audience".

Redwood Empire Coin Club Announces its 1987 Coin Show will be on November 22nd at the Veterans' Memorial Auditorium in Santa Rosa. Coin Show personnel volunteering to date are: LORENE FARNSWORTH, Publicity; BILL FEIST, Bourse; HORACE MOORE, Exhibits; ROY ROBERTS, Drawing, and HELEN ROBERTS, Refreshments. The design for the RECC's second medallion will be in honor of the Golden Gate Bridge, which is fifty years old this year.

Pacific Coast Numismatic Society Heard CAROL FIESE, "Counterfiets of Machin's Mills", 850th Meeting, January 28th; HERB MILES, "Jefferson Nickels", February 25th, and KEN BARR, "Souvenir Cards", March 25th. PCNS is the Host Coin Club for the 80th CSNA Semi-Annual Convention; its President DAVID CIENIEWICZ is also the Convention's General Chairman. PCNS Journal Editor DAVID LANGE has requested PCNS members, many who are just corresponding or live a distance away from San Francisco, to consider presenting a program or talk at a future PCNS meeting. Contact him at: "PO Box 3497, San Francisco, CA, 94119".

Fremont Coin Club Had DR. ROBERT FISHER of the Mission Peak Heritage Foundation presenting a slide show on local Fremont history and past at its January 27th meeting. Attorney LOWELL JOHNSON spoke on Estates and Collectables at the February 10th meeting. Nationally known DR. GEORGE FULD spoke on Early Washington Medals and Tokens at the February 24th meeting. March 10th and 24th meetings speakers were Insurance Agent CY NAJJAR on Insurance and Collectables and DON BARSİ on Silver Rounds. The quality and level of topics of these speakers clearly demonstrate that the FCC has an outstanding and numismatic-oriented cycle of programs, one of the best in this state.

Cupertino Coin Club Clearly promotes and organizes the best junior or youth coin hobbyist program in this state. Your Editor cannot in this column do justice or adequate explain; just write to the CCC requesting information. Show 'n Tell response is another positive feature of this coin club; many members, including juniors, contribute each month. The February 4th meeting speaker was FRANK NIELSEN on European Coins. Exhibit winners at the recent February Coin Show were: Best of Show, AL LO, 'Rulers of Hawaii'; First Adult, KEN BARR, "Love Tokens"; Second Adult, MICHAEL FUERTAS, "The Spanish Civil War Provincial Coinage"; Third Adult, GLEN JACOBS, "Canada Centennial--Coins--Currency--Medallions"; First Youth, KELLY CAROLAN, "Susan B. Anthony"; Second Youth, BRYAN LO, "Animals on Coins", and Third Youth, SUZANNE LO "Statue of Liberty Coins". Other exhibitors were:

Fresno Numismatic Society Writes that is 1987 officers were installed at the Annual Installation Banquet last January 13th: ANDY KOSIERIES; BILLY FEBUARY, Vice-President; PHILLIP PLETTNER, Treasurer, and RUTH PHILLIPS, Secretary. The February 10th meeting program had an interesting idea: all members were asked to do Show 'n Tell on Lincoln or Washington, February's boys of the month. March 10th meeting program was a video on Coin Identification. Fresno Numismatist Editor JOHN PETERS continues his provocative Editorials: "How would you like to see our club's name every week in the Coin Show Directory of Numismatic News? There is a 'trick' that can be used and it's not becoming listed as a commercial show, a regional show, a state show, or a national show. Being listed every week doesn't get us more members to our meetings; WE get more members to our meetings. Being listed every week doesn't increase our membership; WE increase our membership. Being listed every week doesn't increase the number of people that come to our annual coin show; WE increase our attendance. WE are the key to the future of the our coin club and our hobby not some 'trick'. Support our coin club by bringing in new members. Support our coin club by attending the monthly meetings. Support our coin club when asked to be part of the program. Remember--WE ARE THE FUTURE, SO LET'S START GIVING, besides 'tricks are for kids'." Very True and Candidly Stated.

Peninsula Coin Club Has sent only two issues of its newsletter or has Your Editor misplaced March's issue? The meeting themes have been: January 12th, Commemorative Coins; February 9th, Coins of Chad (Now, Your Editor would like to know is there anyone who collects, actively that is, Chad coinage?), and March 9th, Gold. (Now, there is something that everyone collects, even Your Editor who attended this meeting displaying examples of his old Gold Bonds.)

Delta Coin Club Had a nice twist to its attendance drawings: a free, Club paid, book of coin show raffle tickets for a neighbor coin club, the Vallejo Coin Club's Gold Coin Drawing, won by OTTO LINDSKOG. DAVID LANGE, at the March 13th meeting presented his slide illustrated program on United States Philippine Coinage. October 17th and 18th will be the dates of DCC's 1987 Coin Show which will have a fifteen prized gold raffle. DCC's Newsletter Editor and booster SYD KASS requested in the February Issue of his Newsletter if it is okay to Your Editor of this publication; Yes, it is. Now, would you answer your Trivia Question from the March Newsletter: "What form of altered coin is known as a 'Texas Coin'?" Prompt answer in next Newsletter is requested.

Gateway Coin Club Is again printing an informative newsletter. January 15th meeting was Bingo. February 5th meeting show DOODLES WILSON talking on Treasure Hunting which included a demonstration of Metal Detectors. February 19th had a Trivia Question Contest. The March 15th and 19th meeting had respectfully Show 'n Tell and Video on Coin Grading. The current unnamed Acting Editor is

+++++ is doing a fine job and is commended for his or her effort.

Diablo Numismatic Society Elected its 1987 officers: KARL MANTHEI, President; NORTON GLOSSMAN, Vice-President; HAROLD ZACHARIN, Treasurer, and ROSEMARY HURYCH, Secretary. The DNS has moved its meeting location, literally across the street, to Home Federal Savings, Community Room, 1938 Tice Valley Blvd., Concord.

San Francisco Coin Club Elected its 1987 officers: HANS HANSSON, President; STEVEL SEELIG, Vice-President; MIKE STANLEY, Treasurer, and MONA VERZE, Secretary. Noted local numismatic scholar and coin dealer, STEPHEN HUSTON spoke on 'Beginnings of Coinage' at the February 24th meeting. GARY HOLLOWAY, popular SFCC speaker and world traveler, presented a slide travel-log on Italy at the January 27th meeting. JOE WARGO, another regular SFCC speaker, talked on 'Where Is the Hobby Going?' at the March 24th meeting. The SFCC Coin Fair has been postponed until later in this year, September tentatively. It was reported in the January Two Cents Worth, SFCC's monthly newsletter, that "Loser's Raffle was won by MIKE (STAN) TURRINI. This may be a historical moment--TURRINI winning a Loser's Raffle. You heard it First HERE!"

Fairfield Coin Club Elected its 1987 officers: JOE SIROIS, President; STAN TURRINI, Vice-President; JAN HENKE, Secretary, and FLOYD HICKS, Treasurer. February 25th meeting had FCC Vice-President STAN TURRINI showing his slides taken at the October 29, 1986 Silver One Dollar American Eagle First Striking Ceremony, and March 25th meeting had Bingo. As noted in the January Issue of FCC's newsletter, the FCC, although far from rich and not a large membership, has at its meetings outstanding high quality raffles. The December Social was 'Proof Nite' with $300.00 plus value in prizes. The upcoming Annual May Pot-Luck will be a 'Franklin Half Bonanza' with $250.00 plus in fifteen proof and uncirculated Franklin Halves, including earlier dates. Each meeting raffle for January through April has had over $150.00 value in prizes. All prizes bought in advance and paid for from raffle receipts, not a penny of coin club funds spent. FCC members generously support their raffles and win top prizes in return.

Vallejo Numismatic Society Had STAN TURRINI show his slides of the October 29, 1986 Silver One Dollar American Eagle First Striking Ceremony at the January 7th meeting. The February 4th meeting had HANS HANSSON speaking on Swedish Coinage. The March 1st meeting had Show 'n Tell of My Favorite Coin with everyone in attendance participating. Credit for this excellent response goes to VNS President DR. HOWARD LONSDALE who called upon each person; no excuses accepted, just talk about your favorite coin.

Oops! Forgot To List Napa Valley. Sorry NVCC.

Napa Valley Coin Club Witness one person win seven prizes out of fourteen total in the January 21st meeting raffle. Who was it? Lucky STAN TURRINI.
